

EVALUATION OF THE FOURTH E-CONS
 MEETING (COMENIUS 3)
 Seville, 28th of October 2005

On the 28th of November 2005 took place the fourth meeting of the E-CONS Technical Committee. The main aim of this questionnaire is to asses how this activity works and to give alternatives to the questions handled.

The conclusions resulting from those questionnaires belong to the representatives from the following European countries:

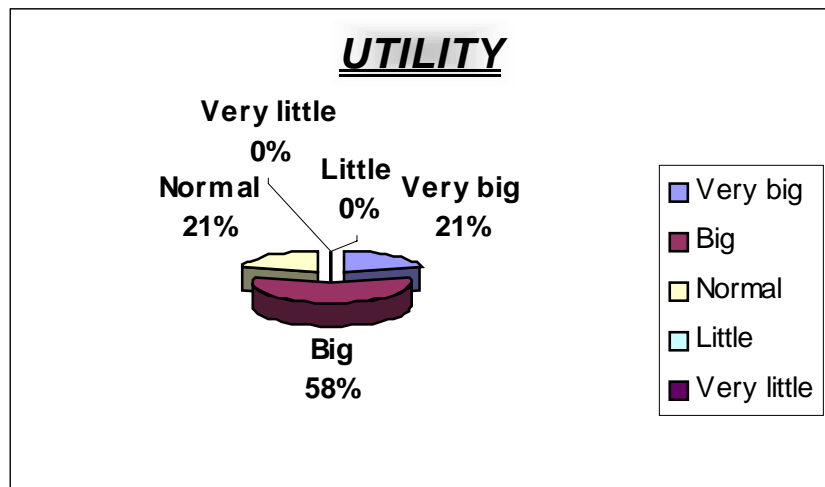

- ✓ Spain, Portugal, Italy, France and United Kingdom.

At the end of the Seminar, every attendant received an evaluation questionnaire to asses the level of satisfaction with his/her participation, considering different aspects.

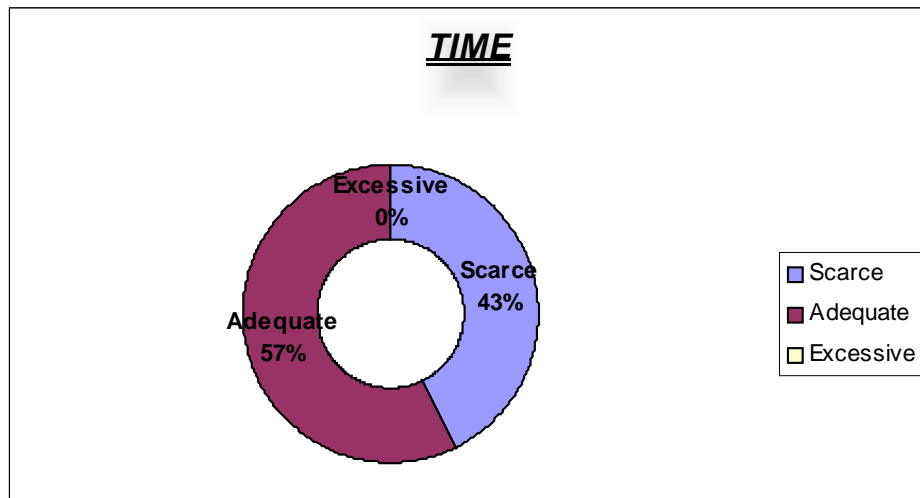

These are the conclusions resulting from those questionnaires:

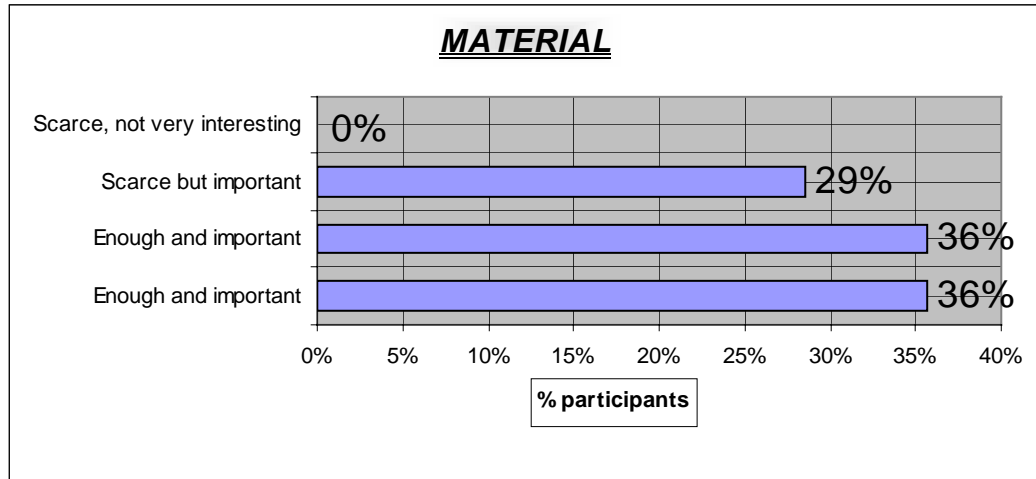

Regarding the level of completion of the programme, 72% of the participants to the meeting thought that it was "Very high" or "High". 21% considered it as "Normal". Finally, 7% of them considered it as "Low".

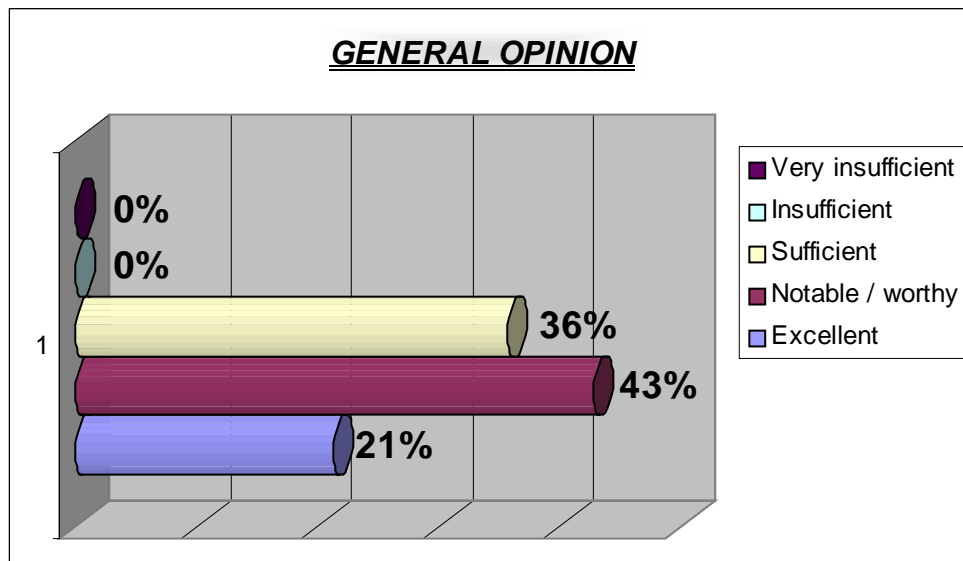

All the persons who were present felt satisfied due to their attendance to the meeting. 79% of them thought that their own satisfaction with the participation in the meeting was "Big" or "Very Big", the rest of the persons evaluated it as "Normal".

57% of the participants, considered that the time dedicated to the meeting was "Adequate". 43% of the whole attendants thought that it would have been good to have more time.

Regarding the material provided at the beginning of the meeting, 72% of the attendants thought that it was “Enough and important” or “Enough”. 28% considered it as important, although they would have liked to receive more materials.

As a whole, 64% of the participants held the conference in high esteem, so they evaluated it either as “Excellent” (21%) or as “Notable” (43%). 26% considered it was “Sufficient” and nobody thought it was insufficient.
