

ANNEX 1

CONSUMER EDUCATION IN THE SCHOOL CURRICULUM Comenius 3 E-CONS Thematic Network

To complete the questionnaire simply place a cross in the box for the answer or answers you have chosen, and where necessary, write the references requested. The questionnaire should be accompanied by a simple document, (of no more than 5 pages in length), written by each partner giving information as to the situation of Consumer Education in their country. The document can initially be sent in its original language, along with a summary in English (of no more than 10 lines). Kindly fill in all sections.

Basic Information:

COUNTRY	GREECE
Name of the organisation giving the information	EKPIZO
Name of the contact person	Helen Alevritou
E-mail	ekpizo@ath.forthnet.gr
Telephone	0030-210-3304444

Current Situation of Consumer Education

1. The right to Consumer Education appears explicitly stipulated in an official document (place a cross in the appropriate box or boxes).

YES

NO

If yes, indicate in which document or documents it appears:

- In the country's constitution or Magna Carta .*
- In a statutory document (law, regulation, etc)*
- In public documents from public institutions
- In the programmes of public institutions related to consumers*
- In the programmes of private Consumer Associations*
- In the work programmes of our institution.*
- Others*

Note: Where possible, please enclose the most important documents supporting the choice of answers

2. Consumer Education:

forms part of the school curriculum and is used to a good degree in the classroom.

X forms part of the school curriculum but is used little in the classroom.

does not form part of the school curriculum but is used to a good degree in the classroom.

does not form part of the school curriculum and is not used in class

Its inclusion in the curriculum and in the classroom is being pushed.

3. In the case where consumer education forms part of the school curriculum:

A) In which levels is it included?

X first level: primary education (from .6.. to ..12... years old)

X second level: secondary education (junior high school (from 13 to 15 years old)

X third level: secondary education (high school) (from 15 to 18 years old) fourth level..... (from..... toyears old)

Note: please include if necessary more levels up to completing the cycles of regulated education from 13 to 18 years old in your country. On the dotted line include the name of the education level in your country and the ages this comprises.

B) How is it included?

as a transversal subject matter

as a specific and compulsory subject

X as an optional subject

X included in one or various subjects (indicate name(s))

HOME ECONOMICS.....

.....

others (please specify)

.....

4. In what way is support given to Consumer Education teaching staff in schools?

X through monographic training courses

- by including the theme in other training courses

X through didactic guidance/ recommendations given to the teaching staff so as to work in the classroom

- through the publication of didactic materials of use in the classroom*
- by recognising its activity with credits and certificates valid for their teaching career*
- through subsidies for specific projects on a local, regional and national scale*
- through subsidies if they participate in Comenius 1 projects*
- with prizes through school competitions*
- other incentives (please specify)*

5. What theme or themes are those most dealt with in the classroom in your country? To answer this question, themes should be ranked in order of their presence in the classroom or in terms of future interest.

In section a) for their presence in the classroom (1 being the theme most present in the classroom and 12 that which is least present) and in section b) in terms of its interest for the future(1 being of most future interest and 12 that of least interest)

a) Presence in the classroom now	Proposed themes	b) Of future interest
1	Food and nutrition	1
12	Buying in the 21st century	7
8	Users of Services	8
7	The home	12
4	Advertising - the media	4
10	Games and Toys	11
9	School material	10
2	Health and safety	2
3	Eco-consumerism	3
13	Body image	13
5	Informed Consumers	5
6	Rights and responsibilities	6
11	Personal finances	9
	Others (please specify)

--	--	--

6. Are didactic materials for consumer education published so that teaching staff may work directly with them in the classroom?

YES NO

If yes: name at least three materials you consider to be important and worthwhile for consumer education.

1.- Name of the material:

Consumer Education in Schools.

Type of material:

Book Video CD-ROM Website Others

Name of the organisation publishing the material

Institute of Continuous Learning for Adults (IDEKE)

Contents of the material (include the most important points from the index):

.....
 1) 6 books- dossiers (with teaching material, exercises, activities), namely : Consumer Education and Economy, Consumer Education and Culture, Consumer Education and Society, Consumer Education and European Union, Teacher's guide, Student' s guide

.....
 2) Video with content similar to that of the books

.....
 3) CD-ROM with content similar to that of the books and also containing an educational game which concerning buys and sales

Way of access to the material:

Purchase Free On loan

Note: where possible send us the material, or at least, the cover picture of the material and its index. In this way we will be able to include them in the website.

2.- Name of the material:
Be Ready for your safety
Type of material:

- Book Video CD-ROM Website Others

Name of the organisation publishing the material

Network for Consumer Education - EKPIZO

Contents of the material (include the most important points from the index):

Teacher's guide – Student's guide – Information – Activities, about:
1) Videogames 2) Internet 3) Cosmetics 4) Cellular phones, 5) Helmets
6) Motorbikes, 7) Toys, 8) Plastic surgery 9) Earrings, 10) Tattoos

Method of access to the material:

- Purchase Free X On loan

Note: where possible send us the material, or at least, the cover picture of the material and its index. In this way we will be able to include them in the website

3.- Name of the material:

Exploring what is consumption (for primary education)

Type of material:

- Book Video CD-ROM Website Others

Name of the organisation publishing the material

Network for Consumer Education - EKPIZO

Contents of the material (include the most important points from the index):

1) Teaching guide 2) nutrition 3) Clothes 4) Ecological consumption 5) Exercises – Activities 6) Evaluation proposals 7) Product Safety

Method of access to the material:

Purchase Free On loan

Note: where possible send us the material, or at least, the cover picture of the material and its index. In this way we will be able to include them in the website

7. Future perspectives for the incorporation of Consumer Education into the school curriculum (please provide a summary of 3-4 lines in English)

For countries where it is not yet included in the curriculum:

- Inclusion in the near future is being studied
 It is not currently foreseen.

Note: include here a document explaining the way your organisation considers Consumer Education should be included in the school curriculum.

For those countries where Consumer Education is included in the curriculum:

Include a document explaining the way in which CE is included in the school curriculum in your country.

- 1) Law 1946/1991 and Ministerial Decision C1/377/865/1992: Realization of Activities and Programs in the Schools of Primary Education.
- 2) Law 1892/1990 and Ministerial Decision C2/4867/1992: Realization of Activities and Programs in the Schools of Secondary Education.
- 3) Teaching Directives for all the Courses of the Secondary Schools, Pedagogical Institute, Athens 2004.
- 4) Yearly edited Ministerial guides about designing and realizing programs of school activities (e.g. environmental education, health education, consumer education and cultural issues).