

ANNEX 1

CONSUMER EDUCATION IN THE SCHOOL CURRICULUM Comenius 3 E-CONS Thematic Network

To complete the questionnaire simply place a cross in the box for the answer or answers you have chosen, and where necessary, write the references requested. The questionnaire should be accompanied by a simple document, (of no more than 5 pages in length), written by each partner giving information as to the situation of Consumer Education in their country. The document can initially be sent in its original language, along with a summary in English (of no more than 10 lines). Kindly fill in all sections.

Basic Information:

COUNTRY	FRANCE
Name of the organisation giving the information	FRENCH NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF CONSUMER (INSTITUT NATIONAL DE LA CONSOMMATION – INC)
Name of the contact person	CHRISTOPHE BERNES
E-mail	c.bernes@inc60.fr
Telephone	00 33 1 45 66 20 66

Current Situation of Consumer Education

1. The right to Consumer Education appears explicitly stipulated in an official document (place a cross in the appropriate box or boxes).

YES

NO

If yes, indicate in which document or documents it appears:

- In the country's constitution or Magna Carta .*
- In a statutory document (law, regulation, etc)*
- In public documents from public institutions*
- In the programmes of public institutions related to consumers*
- In the programmes of private Consumer Associations*
- In the work programmes of our institution.*
- Others*

Note: Where possible, please enclose the most important documents supporting the choice of answers

2. Consumer Education:

forms part of the school curriculum and is used to a good degree in the classroom.

X forms part of the school curriculum but is used little in the classroom.

does not form part of the school curriculum but is used to a good degree in the classroom.

does not form part of the school curriculum and is not used in class

Its inclusion in the curriculum and in the classroom is being pushed.

3. In the case where consumer education forms part of the school curriculum:

A) In which levels is it included?

X first level(from to years old)

X second level..... (from toyears old)

third level..... (from toyears old) fourth level..... (from..... toyears old)

Note: please include if necessary more levels up to completing the cycles of regulated education from 13 to 18 years old in your country. On the dotted line include the name of the education level in your country and the ages this comprises.

B) How is it included?

X as a transversal subject matter

as a specific and compulsory subject

X as an optional subject

included in one or various subjects (indicate name(s))

.....

others (please specify)

.....

4. In what way is support given to Consumer Education teaching staff in schools?

through monographic training courses

by including the theme in other training courses

- through didactic guidance/ recommendations given to the teaching staff so as to work in the classroom*
- through the publication of didactic materials of use in the classroom*
- by recognising its activity with credits and certificates valid for their teaching career*
- through subsidies for specific projects on a local, regional and national scale*
- through subsidies if they participate in Comenius 1 projects*
- with prizes through school competitions*
- other incentives (please specify)*

5. What theme or themes are those most dealt with in the classroom in your country? To answer this question, themes should be ranked in order of their presence in the classroom or in terms of future interest.

In section a) for their presence in the classroom (1 being the theme most present in the classroom and 12 that which is least present) and in section b) in terms of its interest for the future(1 being of most future interest and 12 that of least interest)

a) Presence in the classroom now	Proposed themes	b) Of future interest
1	Food and nutrition	2
	Buying in the 21st century	12
	Users of Services	11
	The home	8
5	Advertising - the media	7
	Games and Toys	10
	School material	13
2	Health and safety	3
3	Eco-consumerism	4
	Body image	9
	Informed Consumers	1
	Rights and responsibilities	6
4	Personal finances	5
	Others (please specify)

--	--	--

6. Are didactic materials for consumer education published so that teaching staff may work directly with them in the classroom?

YES NO

If yes: name at least three materials you consider to be important and worthwhile for consumer education.

1.- Name of the material.....

Type of material:

Book Video CD-ROM Website Others

Name of the organisation publishing the material

.....

Contents of the material (include the most important points from the index):

.....

.....

.....

.....

Way of access to the material:

Purchase Free On loan

Note: where possible send us the material, or at least, the cover picture of the material and its index. In this way we will be able to include them in the website.

2.- Name of the material.....

Type of material:

Book Video CD-ROM Website Others

Name of the organisation publishing the material

FRENCH NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF CONSUMER (INC).....

Contents of the material (include the most important points from the index):

It is a multi-media, downloadable game by Internet, bound for the children from 3 to 6 years. (www.inc60.fr)

This play aims to learn to the children which are the dangers of the house, but also to inform and sensitize the parents and the professionals of the early childhood on the prevention of the domestic risks and the emergency gestures.

Method of access to the material:

- Purchase Free On loan

Note: where possible send us the material, or at least, the cover picture of the material and its index. In this way we will be able to include them in the website

3.- Name of the material THE LUNCH AT SCHOOL.....

Type of material:

- Book Video CD-ROM Website Others

Name of the organisation publishing the material

FRENCH NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF CONSUMER (INC).....

Contents of the material (include the most important points from the index):

It is a multi-media website and book, bound for the children from 7 to 14 years. (www.inc60.fr) and particularly for those who eat at school for the lunch. There are different games to buy food, to choose food, to cook, to use the fridge... It is also useful for the parents and the teachers ti give them informations about nutritional balance, cost, etc.....

.....
.....
.....

Method of access to the material:

- Purchase Free On loan

Note: where possible send us the material, or at least, the cover picture of the material and its index. In this way we will be able to include them in the website

7. Future perspectives for the incorporation of Consumer Education into the school curriculum (please provide a summary of 3-4 lines in English)

For countries where it is not yet included in the curriculum:

- Inclusion in the near future is being studied
- It is not currently foreseen.

Note: include here a document explaining the way your organisation considers Consumer Education should be included in the school curriculum.

For those countries where Consumer Education is included in the curriculum:
Include a document explaining the way in which CE is included in the school curriculum in your country.